The way you hire from the EU has changed

Swipe up to find out more

Thank you for using the February 2021 edition of our Employer Partner pack.

Free movement ended on 31 December and the UK has introduced a points-based immigration system. The new system treats EU and non-EU citizens equally and transforms the way in which all migrants come to the UK to work. Anyone coming to the UK to work will need to apply for permission in advance except Irish citizens or EU citizens eligible for status under the EU Settlement Scheme.

To support you in providing essential guidance about the new points-based system to employers and your stakeholders, we have developed a suite of digital and print assets with information to help employers prepare.

This pack outlines our key messages and provides communication products for use on channels including social media, email updates and e-newsletters. Please do feel free to share this pack and the assets among your wider partners.

Your help and support in communicating this essential guidance is much appreciated. We hope this pack makes it as easy as possible to share updates with your audience and stakeholders through your range of digital channels.

Key messages

- The way you hire from the EU has changed. You must be a licensed sponsor to hire eligible employees from outside the UK.
- Free movement has ended, and the points-based immigration system has salary and language requirements that change the way you hire from the EU.
- The system treats EU and non-EU citizens equally and transforms the way in which employers recruit from outside the UK.
- You need a sponsor licence to hire most eligible employees from outside the UK. This does not apply to Irish citizens.
- Some immigration routes, such as Global Talent, are 'unsponsored'. You don't need a licence to hire employees with an unsponsored visa.
